

Is The Truth Irrelevant

—(Continued from Page 1)—

In one instance a publication which carries on a continuous campaign to expose this minority's activities of a subversive nature, was forced to move temporarily from an Eastern State to Florida where sympathetic paper suppliers secretly provided the news print needed to get out the paper.

In another instance one of the wealthiest and most powerful newspapers in the United States was forced to withdraw a story and make a public apology to the minority group which threatened to cancel millions of dollars worth of advertising. This story, written by the paper's Washington correspondent, dealt with what the writer termed "The Secret Government of the U.S.A." and it named three men whose names are familiar to most of the people in the country. The article in no way mentioned that these men just happened to belong, by reason of racial and religious connections, with this minority.

The people are becoming more and more aware of the fact that news stories which should rate headlines in all important newspapers very often are not released by the press associations. The only way a small segment of the population learns of such stories is through periodicals published by patriotic organizations.

That there is a world wide conspiracy to set up a World government, is, of course, well known to the average person. But that this minority group is using Communism as a convenient vehicle to set itself up as the ruling class is little known for reasons which may be inferred from the above paragraphs.

In 1905 a Russian scholar came into possession of a secret document which had been in existence for at least 20 years then. This man went to England where he translated the document into English and then published it in the form of a pamphlet. A copy is in the British Museum and bears the date of its reception, August 10, 1906. All copies of the document and the English translation which could be found in Russia were destroyed during the Kerensky regime, and under his successors, the possession of a copy by anyone in the Soviet countries was crime sufficient to warrant the owner being shot to death.

The pamphlet, a copy of which the writer has had in his possession for many years, contains 24 parts, each dealing with a particular phase of the plan for world domination. It covers in minute detail every step to be taken to gain control of the economic and political life of the people of all democratic countries. The writer has observed through the years, especially during the past three decades, the unfoldment of this plan. Its development was, as you may suspect, accelerated during the New Deal and Fair Deal administrations.

Control of the avenues of communication, the press, radio and T.V. are covered and today we see the results. Let me quote from this document what was planned more than 70 years ago:

"It is with this object in view that we are constantly, by means of our press, arousing a blind confidence in these theories." In the preceding part of the chapter from which this is quoted it speaks of Darwinism and the philosophies of several German and Russian philosophers, all of whom are now regarded as mad men bent on destroying faith in Christian doctrine and ethics. If you think that "brain-washing" is something new listen to this:

"Moreover, the art of directing (the) masses and the individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirks, in all which (the people) understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brains."

Woodrow Wilson became aware of the fact that there was a powerful and invisible cabal at work in international affairs and which blocked him at every turn when he went to Europe after World War I. He confided in a close friend that, "there was some POWER there with which I could not contend." Listen, then, to this:

"The nations cannot come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it."

In a speech at Dallas, Texas on February 14, 1955 Senator Wm. E. Jenner, former chairman of the Senate Internal Security Committee, and a man well versed in all phases of the Communist conspiracy, alluded to the "secret cabal" which has infiltrated every branch of our government and which is in effect, a government within a government. No one can claim to be well informed on this subject unless he has read Senator Jenner's speech. He explains how and why our foreign policies, well conceived and intentioned by the Congress and the Presidents, have been perverted in a manner which always results in the Kremlin coming out ahead. Read this:

"We must compel the governments of (the people) to take action in the direction favored by our widely conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by which we shall represent as PUBLIC OPINION, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called 'Great Power'."

It goes on to say: "The press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands."

Further over is found this: "Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control. Even now this is already being attained by us, inasmuch as all news items are received by a few AGENCIES (the press services) in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them."

While this may not be relevant to the subject being presented here, it is interesting, in view of the furor about comic books and obscene literature being sold in this country, to note one more paragraph which I quote in part:

"In countries known as progressive and enlightened we have created a senseless, filthy and abominable literature. For some time after our entrance to power we shall continue to encourage its existence in order to provide a telling relief by contrast to the speeches, party program, which we shall distribute from our exalted headquarters."

Yes, all this was planned at least 70 years ago. I leave it to the judgment of the reader as to whether or not this document is genuine and whether the plan in these respects at least, has not come to fruition.

WHO IS CRAZY ?

By MARILYN R. ALLEN
Salt Lake City

There's much biased, emotional propaganda nowadays about "mental health." Washington bureaucrats and the Medical Trust oppose natural methods of curing the cancer-curse: an actual conspiracy exists against natural health foods and practitioners.

During 1954, 100,000 pounds of dye chemicals known to cause cancer in animals were added to our foodstuffs: rat poison (fluorides) contaminates our drinking-water: Salk monkey poison is shot into millions of children.

To cap the climax, bills were introduced in several state legislatures forbidding the people to buy simple vitamins and minerals, except on prescription from a medical doctor. The AMA monopoly seems determined to rule or ruin! American individual freedom is steadily encroached upon in the Health Field, as in all others. The "Powers That Be" are working overtime to make our citizens into regimented robots of the State.

Could it be that these officials and legislators are the ones who are crazy?

Common Sense*

Union, New Jersey, U. S. A.
Conde McGinley, Editor

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedoms, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "straw that breaks the camel's back."

Purchase copies of Common Sense.

$1 for 30 copies, $3 for 100, $10 for 500

One year's subscription, $1. Three years for $2.50

First Class Sealed $3.00 per year

Foreign and Canada $1.00 ten mos.

Common Sense*

Published twice monthly at

530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey, U. S. A.
*Trade Mark Registered United States Patent Office

Entered as Second Class Matter, January 27, 1948 at the Post Office at Union, N. J., under the act of March 3, 1879.

New World Expansion

(Continued from Page 1)

Witness the growing influx of an estimated several hundred thousand Eastern U. S. and European and Asiatic refugee Jews, backed evidently by unlimited millions of dollars (Is this U. S. foreign aid money being diverted here?), to the Los Angeles area since World War II — with no telling how many additional folk with how much wealth at their command are heading this way.

Your casual, traffic-dodging tourist into Los Angeles perhaps little realizes there is being created here a vast Jewish Ghetto second only to that of New York City. The colony is being set up by taking over tens of square miles of the Wilshire District and Beverly Hills, with their, for the most part, near-palatial homes of late design, in which is rapidly developing a "world apart" with its own network of synagogues and Yiddish language schools, Yiddish newspapers, organized professional groups, and campaigns of rag-picker-type business men to urge on City Council rezoning of now restricted streets to permit shops etc.

Hollywood's original 18 square miles of course had long since been settled extensively by Jewish folk from the late 1930's when they started buying up the miles of distressed older bungalows. Famed Hollywood Blvd., the main thoroughfare, is fast becoming a more or less cheap, "flea-bag" retail street. But these newcomers are a bit late for the big kill. Early birds of post-World War I, preempting the scenic and sunny area as one vast movie lot, grossed billions at the world's box office — without, naturally, putting any important money back into the town. Honest early subdividers had already laid out the town on a big scale.

The movie gold ebbing for a time, our Jewish film moguls and their banker friends took on the far-flung L. A. area subdivision and home-building rackets, with "skinned" contracting methods, hidden charges and over-pricing, which have been going great guns since World War II, producing more millions for Jewish world expansion.

For the almost unbelievable picture of Southern California migrant Jewish influence, let us regard the 50-odd square mile area including Hollywood, West Wilshire, Culver City, Beverly Hills and the approaches to Santa Monica beach. Yesterday this writer in driving down Pico Blvd. counted some nine expensive Jewish church-school centers, besides a number of community meeting halls under way or being rushed to completion on this street alone. Many non-Jews are leaving the "blighted area" rather than face slow cultural and racial disintegration, especially at the hands of renegade hoodlum-type Jews eager to marry outside their own group. "Get a blond — get a Gentile dame!" is the cry. This is the general area that has produced so many proved Comies and subversives at Un-American Committee hearings.

A horde of lawyers, largely dominated by Jewish predator-types, has latched on to swank Beverly Hills (West Hollywood) as an especially rich field. Some 300 of these attorneys work here in the opulent Reno-Las Vegas, Nevada-Los Angeles divorce rackets and in the movie, TV and stage talent contract field. This Beverly Hills group only recently tried to force the State of Calif. to build them a branch court-house to be staffed by judges and whatnot of their choosing. Vetoed by Gov. Knight! Some wag has since styled the effort as an attempt to dignify a "gilded roost of shysterdom . . . a California Reno, but vastly more expensive for unwanted husbands."

Then there is bright boy friend Jimmy Roosevelt (Rep. in Congress 26th Dist. of Calif.), who won strong backing in the 1954 elections from Jewish folk in the general area just named. With "Ma" Eleanor's blessing, he had been trying unsuccessfully for years to get himself elected to something. At last he hit the jackpot by, reported observers at his heels, kissing babies and "dearie-ing" young women at Los Angeles' 150 synagogues, when he wasn't out night and day making house-to-house calls. It was suggested his campaign slogan should be: Send me to Washington; the wife you save may be your own. He won the very hard way for a Roosevelt; all but boot-licked his constituency, one could